BRAND NEW RELEASE!

The FRONT PORCH album is a ten song collection of songs about the literal, emotional and global "front porch." It is a simple, acoustic album of banjos, mandolins, guitars and string quartets. Studio cuts include the title song and many others, live tracks include the amazing folk rendition of the classical piece Pachelbel's Canon. It is already considered one of the finest albums released in 2011.

Only $10 each ... Order any three CDs for only $20 FREE SHIPPING in the USA

The RAVENWOOD album is the precursor of the FRONT PORCH CD, released in 2009 and features Sam Bush and John McEuen on mandolin, plus bluesman Guy Davis. The album is worth it just to hear the Beatles-esque rendition of Darlin' Corey.

Only $10 each ... Order any three CDs for only $20 FREE SHIPPING in the USA

WoodSongs II includes the Homestead compact disc

This 176 page settin' on the front porch of your log cabin book is the second in the WoodSongs Book & CD series. Over 35 chapters, full of photos, stories, songs, folk jokes and more including:

- * HOMESTEAD: The opening chapter about the "feeling" of home and the comfort of finding your place in life, written from Michael's old farmhouse near Lexington, Ky (that's his kitchen on the Homestead album cover)

- * BELLS OF COLD NOVEMBER: Story of Malcom Kilduff, the assistant press secretary who was with President Kennedy that fateful day in November 1963

- * ALL ABOUT EVA: The tender, true stories of artists who failed in life only to captivate their audience after they were gone, like singer Eva Cassidy, the amazing songbird who passed away in obscurity only to have her small independent album end up selling over 3 million copies worldwide ... the lonely artistic journey of Vincent Van Gogh ... and the moving, literary struggle of Henry David Thoreau.

- * DA MUSIK BIDNESS: Michael's funny yet scathing overview of the music industry, record labels and the business of being an independent artist.

- * plus FOLK JOKES, homespun recipes, sheet music to songs, great quotes, funny essays and a moving commentary about your kitchen table . . . no kidding!

Only $20 each
